To all job applicants,

Thank you for applying to be a member of the elite team at Riverside Health Club.

What makes our team elite? Many staff positions require specific levels of education and require maintenance of a certain fitness level. All positions require an understanding that members are our priority. Staff must have good personal skills, be friendly and service-oriented with a helpful attitude. Because we care about our members, we require punctuality and articulate phone and oral communication skills. An employee should have a neat, clean professional appearance and dress according to dress code.

The quality of staff at Riverside Health Club ensures that members' needs are met. We expect staff to be dependable, flexible, honest, trustworthy, courteous, respectful, kind, cheerful, moral and ethical.

We always accept applications, even when we are not hiring. Your application will be kept on file for 3 to 4 months.

Please attach your resume if applicable.

Thank you for taking the time to come in and apply.

D.I.S.C. Simple Assessment

In the spaces below, identify those behaviors which are MOST and LEAST characteristics of you in an identified situation (in this case, your behavior in a fitness setting). Working left to right, assign 4, 3, 2, and 1 to each characteristic behavior: 4 representing the most and 1 the least. Use each number only once.

- Read the options from left to right going across the sheet.
- It helps to cover up the sheet and disclose one line at a time.
- Go with your first thought. Avoid overanalyzing. Be honest with yourself.
